

Employee Attrition Intelligence & Workforce Risk Analytics

1,470

Total Employees

237

Attrition Count

16.1%

Attrition Rate %

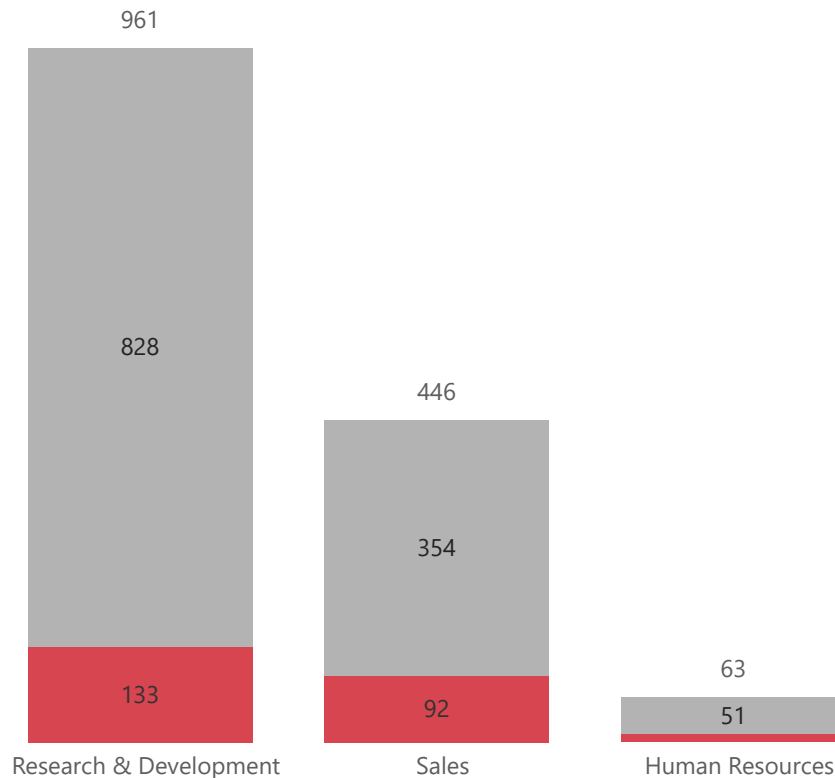

₹ 6,503

Avg Monthly Incom...

56

High Risk Employees

Departments Most Affected by Attrition

● Attrition Count ● Employees Stayed

Gender

Female

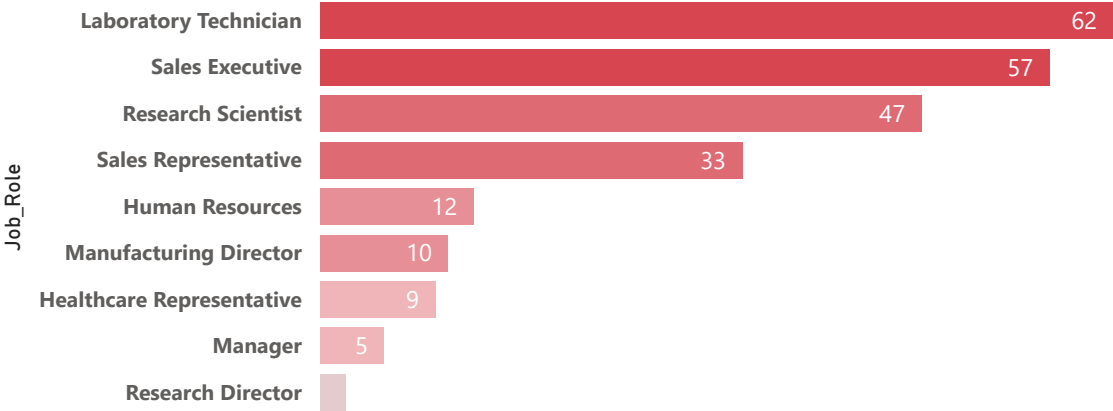

Male

KEY WORKFORCE INSIGHTS:

- Overall attrition rate stands at 16.1%, with 237 employees leaving the organization.
- Research & Development accounts for the highest number of employee exits, contributing over half of all attrition cases.
- Sales shows the highest attrition proportion, indicating a greater retention challenge relative to workforce size.
- Nearly 1 in 6 employees have left the organization, highlighting the need for targeted retention strategies.

Employee Attrition Intelligence & Workforce Risk Analytics

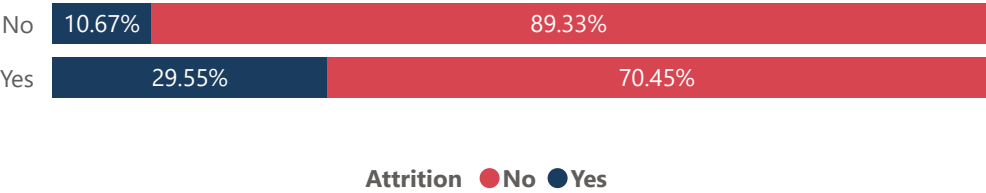

Attrition Hotspots

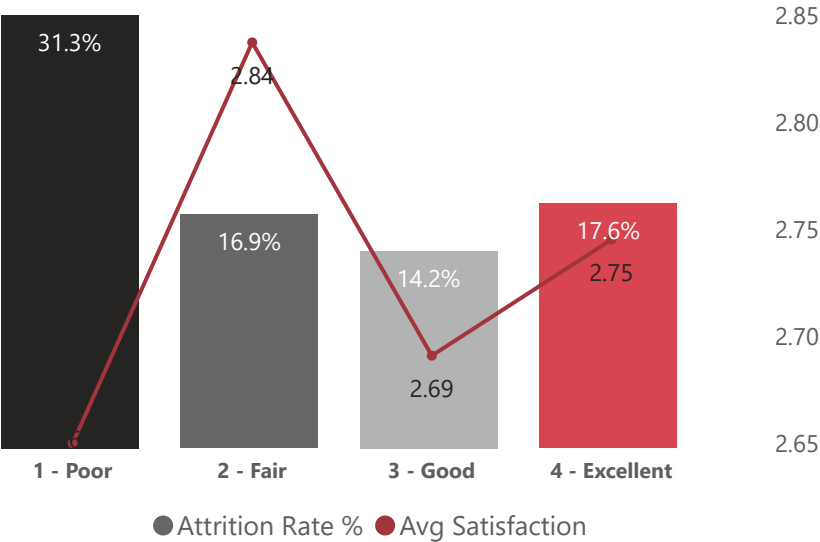

Compensation Impact

Overtime Risk

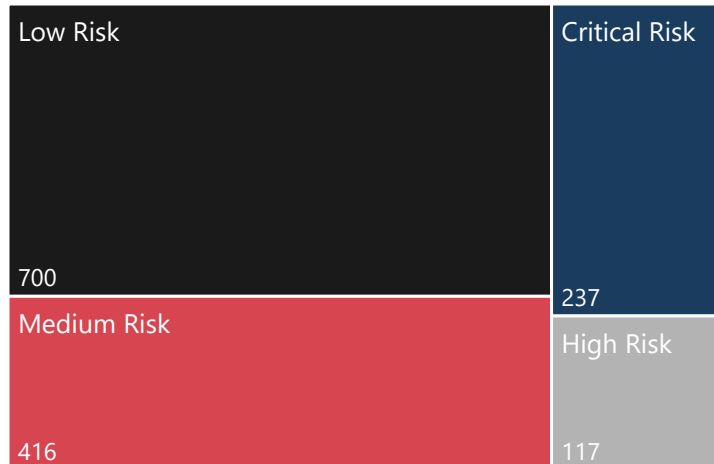

Work-Life Balance

- Laboratory Technicians and Sales Executives account for the highest attrition volume.
- Low-income employees record highest attrition rate (21.8%).
- Employees working overtime are nearly 3× more likely to leave.
- Improved work-life balance is associated with higher

Employee Attrition Intelligence & Workforce Risk Analytics

Workforce Risk Profile

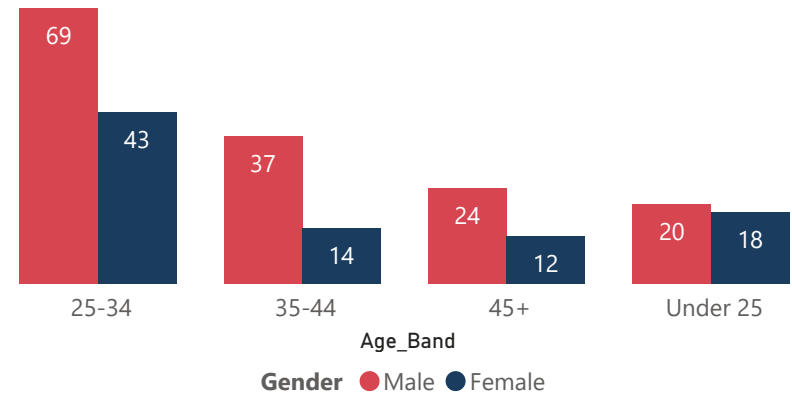

Tenure Risk

Highest Risk Tenure Group: 0-2 Years (102 Exits)

Age & Gender Risk

Retention Recommendations

- Medium and Low Risk employees account for the largest workforce segments.
- Employees aged 25-34 show the highest attrition levels across both genders.
- Early-tenure employees represent the highest turnover risk.
- Retention efforts should focus on career growth, compensation, and work-life balance initiatives.